Dear General Miller;

The 244th Combat Tactical Communications Squadron and the 116th Tactical Control Squadron of the Oregon Air National Guard participated in BORDER STAR 81 during the period of 21 March - 15 April 1981. The exercise featured a comprehensive evaluation of joint operations against an integrated air defense system. Your units, along with other Air National Guard units and individuals, contributed hard work, experience and dedication to the achievement of our goals. All told, more than 1500 Air National Guard members served, constituting nearly half of our total Air Force complement.

We are pleased to enclose certificates of participation to commemorate the excellent service of the 136 members of the 244th CTCS and the 6 members of the 116th TCS who worked with us in the field, plus the numerous members who assisted in preparing the units for this important exercise. The professional performance of the 244th CTCS and the 116th TCS, Oregon Air National Guard, reflects great credit on our total force policy and your readiness to serve.

Sincerely,

CHARLES C. PATTILLO
Lieutenant General, USAF
Deputy Commander in Chief

1. Enclosed is a Jointed Readiness Certificate for the 244th Combat Tactical Communications Squadron. These exercises give the participants a good picture of their role in the total force and helps units evaluate their readiness in relationship to their active Air Force counterparts.

2. I commend those who took part in Border Star 81. They did a fine job.
