Commander: Lt. Col Wayne A. Green

Capt. Moose makes Portland Police Chief ***

On 29 June 1993 Oregon Air National Guard Captain Charles A. Moose was sworn in as the Chief of Police for Portland, Oregon. Captain Moose's promotion was the headline story for the 26 June 1993 edition of 'The Oregonian', Oregon's largest daily newspaper. Captain Moose has been with the Portland Police department since 1975. He moved to Portland from North Carolina. While rising through the ranks of the Police Department, Capt. Moose has served as a Precinct Captain, and Deputy Chief of Police Operations. He attended the FBI National Academy at Quantico, Virginia in 1988. He earned a Bachelor's Degree in History from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, a Master's Degree in History from the University and is currently working toward a PhD from Portland State in Criminology.

The 244 CCSQ teams up for the Hood-to-Coast

The 244 CCSQ Formed a Hood to Coast Team of enthusiastic runners. While the 244th Combat Communications Squadron team finished among the final 50 teams competing, it was a great effort for having never run the Hood to Coast previously. Sponsored by the NCO Academy Graduates Association and named after their metto, "Dic Quando et Ubi" (Say When and Where), the group combined the fun of teamwork and a promise of coming back next year as motivation.
