Here are some main highlights of the first half of 1996 for the 244CBCS.

The January UTA was dedicated to training for the upcoming ORI that transpired in July. Selected personnel attended SYSCON training at a Commanders briefing that was held both Saturday and Sunday to prepare for the February 36hr. in-garrison. C-bags were inspected. January Retirements for the 244CBCS were as follows: MSG Sandra Rex. There were two Promotions: A1C Rian Hakala and A1C Scott P. Miller. There were two New Enlistments this month: SrA. David Graves and A1C. Brandon Hoard.

The February UTA - Our 36hr. in-garrison exercise was designed to provide maximum allowable time for realistic operations. Sections not participating in the section training worked normal shift hours. Limited ATSO's and CCA practice was accomplished. Annual safety inspection for Operations, Maintenance Control, and Material Control was conducted. Weapons cleaning inspections, and arms vault procedure training were given by the SP. There was a 2 hour Quality assurance Section Planning Meeting. A dynel tent was erected in the Auditorium to simulate field conditions. Contamination control facilities were set up to familiarize personnel with CCA procedures. February Retirements were as follows: TSgt Stephen C. Crawford. Promotions for February: MSgt Conrad K. Spens.

The March drill was designated as a Commander's Option UTA. The main focus of the weekend was to prepare for our May 96hr. deployment and to complete final tune up for all UTC's. Among the numerous activities held, there were classes in-CPR, SABC, COMSEC, and Initial Drivers Training. March Retirements were: MSgt Seibert T. Root. Promotions for this month were: TSgt Bruce C. Anderson and TSgt Raymond B. Tyre. The Airman of the Quarter board met at 1500hrs. in the Auditorium. The following Airmen won in 2 categories: Category I-Laura Sutherland -- Category II-Sandra Woodin -- Category III-None.

April UTA-This weekend was dedicated to a Mobility Exercise to help prepare the 244CBCS for our mission at the July '96 ORI. Training was conducted on palletizing, weighing and labeling UTC increments and Hazardous Cargo. All personnel went through a processing line to check all essentials before deployment. This was the month for weigh-ins, physicals and shots. Retirements for this month are: Russell L. Ainslie. Promotions for this month were: SrA. Jeffery W. Bynum, SrA. Brandon M. Hoard, and TSgt Kenneth Stillwell.

May was designated as a 96 hour deployment in support of 252CCGP Oplan 533. 3-4 May was the May UTA. 5-6 May was Our Annual field training. Our objective for this UTA was to conduct a command and control and circuit dress rehearsal for the ORI. Also practiced were CFP command and control in all rated areas at a criteria of "Excellent" or higher and to achieve employment circuit activation at a criteria of "Excellent" or higher. Unit members performed ATSO (Passive Defense Measures/Response and BRAAT).

Deployment was to Camp Rilea. Once on Camp Rilea the base was closed. The Convoys departed starting at 0900hrs. Friday 3 May 96 and arrived at Rilea at 1300hrs. S-hour started Sat 4 May 96 at 0800hrs. No camouflage was required for this deployment. Endex was Sun 5 May 96 at 1700hrs. 6 May was utilized for recovering equipment. Personnel were released upon approval of the Commander. Promotions for this month were: TSgt Judy J. Riley.

The 1-2 June UTA was intended for accomplishing a wide variety of training. Outbreifings were held for the ORI as final preparations were set in motion for our deployment. Records were updated, PR folders were reviewed and many operation procedures were put into practice. The following Airmen won Airman of the Quarter in 3 Categories: Category I-Rian Hakala -- Category II-Theresa Whalen -- Category III-Scott O'Neil. Promotions for this month were: MSgt David J. Linn and MSgt Harold T. Sargent.

This concludes the first half of 1996 for the 244CBCS.
